CORPUS LINGUISTICS - RESOURCES

- PIC – the Prosodic Italian Corpus of Irish English learners
The PIC corpus is the first prosodically annotated speech corpus of Irish English learners of Italian. This spoken corpus consists of 952 speech tokens (broad and corrective-contrastive focus statements; info-seeking polar and open questions) produced by undergraduate Irish English students of Italian before and after explicit prosodic-pragmatic training.
- STRINA – the Corpus of Italian Spoken in La Spezia
The STRINA corpus is the first prosodically annotated corpus of Italian spoken in La Spezia. The corpus consists of 1180 speech tokens concerning different communicative situations.
- IES - The Corpus of Irish English Speech
The IES corpus is the most recent prosodically annotated speech corpus of Irish English speakers. At present, it includes the varieties of Irish English spoken in Galway, Mayo, Dublin, East Donegal, and West Cork for a total of 5760 speech tokens and 30 hours of recordings.
